CHARTERED TOWN PLANNERS

12/01/2017 – Local Housing for Local People; Consultation event for Land at Widegates.

A Consultation event aimed at giving local residents the chance to have their say and register their interest in a scheme to provide 19 homes of which at least 10 will be much needed affordable homes for Morval Parish.

- The consultation event, on 12th January 2017, is aimed at giving residents the chance to have their say on the design of an affordable housing lead housing development.
- People are being asked what they think about the proposed scheme, which is being promoted by Eliot Design and Build Ltd, and to register their interest in occupying one of the new affordable homes.
- The proposed development will comprise a mix of housing; 1 bed apartments, 2,3 & 4 bed houses.
- On Thursday 12th January 2017, Eliot Design and Build Ltd will make use of the Reading Rooms in Widegates where residents can find out more about the proposed development and give their views.
- The community consultation takes place between 15.00 and 17.00.
